

Cox Amphitheater Policy

Reservation Request: Cox Amphitheater is a public space and no exclusions can be made to individuals wishing to participate in the event. Requesting space on 25live must be placed no less than five (5) business days prior to the event date. Please give a brief description on the request form of what your event will entail. (Example: Singing, fundraiser, food; please make note how food is being provided) This information will help Meeting Services coordinate what all may be needed for processing purposes. The individual in charge of the event MUST be present for the duration of the event. Notification for events involving Emory Police must be placed two weeks prior to your “confirmed” event date, and again 24 hours in advance of your event at 404-727-8005. Please give details of your event and discuss any gate access or other safety issues. No glass containers, gambling, fire pits or raffles are allowed. Grilling may be present with prior approval by Meeting Services. Important: Some events due to their size and logistics may need more time for approvals.
